

Consignment Ticket Information

What's NEW in 2009???

A wonderful place to get your group together to have a company picnic, the Kids Cove Tent now has a beautiful new mural on the wall to bring the feeling of Kids Cove all the way to the tent for your group to enjoy. The Knoxville Zoo has a phenomenal Butterfly Exhibit that is slated to open in April, weather permitting. Wee Play Zoo Exhibit will make its home in our Pilot Center this year as an exciting Interactive Children's Museum for toddlers and small children to learn what the Zoo and its animals are all about. With all that is new, the Knoxville Zoo also is the place where over 800 animals call home and they all would appreciate your visit!

Consignment Tickets are a wonderful opportunity for your group to order tickets at a discounted rate and then distribute them to your employees / customers (etc.) for individual use any day that the zoo is open! These tickets serve as a great bonus for those who go above and beyond their usual duties, OR sell the tickets at no expense to your group as an inexpensive member benefit!

Consignment Tickets are also a great way for your group to advertise, since all tickets are personalized and printed with your company's name on them.

Consignment tickets are redeemable towards Knoxville Zoo Membership packages. Exciting sales incentives for top sellers are attached and don't forget that you only pay for the tickets you use!

Thank you for choosing the Knoxville Zoo. We look forward to your group's visit and we hope that you enjoy the time spent with us!

Sincerely,

Christopher A. Juday
